MILLVILLE — Boosted by what city officials deemed a successful landlord training session last week, Weed and Seed Coordinator Liz Nicklus stated Friday similar sessions will now occur twice yearly.

Commissioner Dale Finch and Nicklus said 34 landlords attended the meeting, where they were briefed by Police Chief Ed Grennon and Millville Housing Authority Executive Director Paul Dice

They were told their obligations and responsibilities regarding code enforcement, as well as options concerning eviction and crime at their properties.

According to city officials, approximately 2,500
