

Massive crane closes block of High Street

From staff reports • October 8, 2010

MILLVILLE -- A block of North High Street was closed for a few hours Thursday morning as a crew replaced a part of a cell phone tower.

The first block of the road between Main and Mulberry streets was closed to traffic Thursday morning as a large crane occupied the middle of the roadway. A crew from Garton's Rigging replaced the platform for a T-Mobile tower on the roof of Jaycee Plaza.

The Millville Housing Authority rents space on the roof of the building to phone companies to generate revenue.
